ABOUT THE CHAPEL

Welcome to the Chapel at the Old Royal Naval College (ORNC), Sir Christopher Wren’s twin-domed riverside masterpiece.

This glorious Chapel was built by Thomas Ripley to the designs of Sir Christopher Wren and was the last major part of the Royal Hospital for Seamen to be constructed. Following a disastrous fire in 1779, it was redecorated by James ‘Athenian’ Stuart in the Greek revival style, and today is a wonderful example of a complete neoclassical interior.

The Chapel is open daily and you are warmly invited to join our congregation at regular services held throughout the week – Choral Evensong on Mondays at 17.30, Holy Communion on Wednesdays at 13.05 and Choral Eucharist on Sundays at 11.00. We are a growing, lively and all-age congregation, forming part of the Diocese of Southwark within the Church of England, and offering an optional crèche for families with small children during the main service. Our Choir is outstanding.

The excellent acoustics of the curved ceiling also mean the Chapel is often used for concerts and recitals by our site partner Trinity Laban Conservatoire of Music and Dance.

The Chaplaincy
The Chaplain to the Chapel is responsible for pastoral care and worship for all who study, work and visit ORNC. There is a pastoral responsibility to ORNC’s two site partners Trinity Laban and the University of Greenwich.

The Chaplaincy is here for people of all faiths or none, and provides a confidential listening ear, pastoral care and/or spiritual guidance, as well as offering general hospitality and support.

The Chaplain is based in the Chapel office, but holds regular drop-in sessions around the site.
