The Chapel of St Peter & St Paul

OLD ROYAL
NAVAL COLLEGE

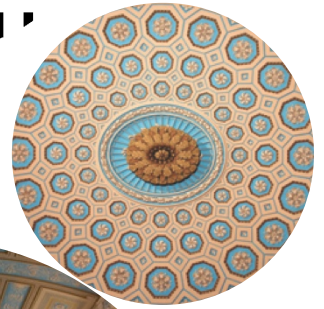

ABOUT THE CHAPEL

WELCOME to the Chapel of St Peter and St Paul at the Old Royal Naval College in Greenwich.

This glorious Chapel was built by Thomas Ripley to the designs of Sir Christopher Wren and was the last major part of the Royal Hospital for Seamen to be constructed. Following a disastrous fire in 1779, it was redecorated by James 'Athenian' Stuart in the Greek Revival style and today constitutes a beautiful example of a complete neoclassical interior.

The Chapel is open daily from 10.00am–5.00pm as a place of prayer and meditation. You are also warmly invited to join the congregation for our regular services: Choral Eucharist on Sundays at 11.00am, Choral Evensong on Mondays at 5.30pm (term time), and Holy Communion on Wednesdays at 1.05pm. We are a welcoming and inclusive congregation, forming part of the Diocese of Southwark within the Church of England. We offer a crèche facility for families with small children during the main service on Sundays. Our celebrated choir sings at our Sunday and Monday services, complementing thoughtful preaching and beautiful liturgy in a setting of some of the world's most magnificent architecture.

The excellent acoustics of the curved ceiling also mean that the Chapel is often used for concerts and recitals by our site partner, Trinity Laban Conservatoire of Music and Dance.

THE CHAPLAINCY

The Chaplain is responsible for the Chapel's worship and the pastoral care of all who come to the Old Royal Naval College to work, learn, and visit. Such support is available to everyone, regardless of tradition or background, and therefore takes different forms: as spiritual guidance, confidential counselling, and general hospitality.

The Chaplain is based at the Chapel office but is also available to meet around the site by appointment. Contact details are listed on the back of this booklet.
