GENERAL

WHAT IS THE GREENWICH DOG SHOW?

This very special event on the grounds of the Old Royal Naval College, in the heart of Greenwich, is a celebration of the canine world – a good time for the entire family. People are invited to come for the day or enter their dog into the Show with highlight categories including waggiest tail, prettiest bitch, and most handsome dog. Places are limited with 30 dogs per class, so don't miss out your chance to participate.

WHY IS OLD ROYAL NAVAL COLLEGE HOSTING A DOG SHOW?

The event is an opportunity to discover the historic site through a fun day out for everyone, participants and spectators alike. We aim to enliven our spacious riverside grounds and help the community and visitors discover something new.

Events are a vital way in which we can engage with people. This year there will also be a chance to meet ORNC volunteers to learn more about their key role in this historical venue and how to sign up to become one.

WILL THIS EVENT GENERATE REVENUE?

Any profit from tickets received by The Greenwich Foundation will be used to further our charitable mission to educate the public and to preserve this historic site.

As a charity funds raised from concerts and events provide an independent income to support the maintenance, interpretation and conservation of our historic buildings and grounds.

WILL THE EVENT CAUSE DAMAGE TO THE BUILDINGS OR GROUNDS?

All precautions have been taken to ensure the building and grounds are protected. We are committed to keeping our buildings and grounds safe and to protect these historically significant buildings and artworks for generations to come.

The Old Royal Naval College has an excellent track record of hosting large and small concerts, events, and filming across our site whilst staying open to our community and visitors as a public space and a tourist destination.

If there is damage to the grass, a certified contractor will assess the damage and reinstate as appropriate.
