KING SOLOMON'S
CATERING

Head Chef, Solomon Quartey, has always had a passion for food, in his late teens Solomon entered a catering competition in Ghana and won a prestigious scholarship to study Culinary Art. The scholarship entailed spending three months each in the UK, Canada and Australia, which gave him an invaluable education in professional catering and an incredible life experience. Back in Ghana, he was snapped up by a local restaurant, working his way up before being headhunted by the Ghanaian High Commission to become their in-house chef, managing all the catering for local and visiting dignitaries. Solomon was asked to relocate to London to continue to work as Head Chef for the Ghanaian High Commission.

He challenges the misconceptions of Afro-Caribbean food stereotypes, experimenting with Pan Asian fusions and coming up with fresh, appealing and innovative ways to serve the traditional, beloved dishes he grew up with. Even an exceptionally talented chef is only as good as the ingredients they work with, and Solomon ensures that King Solomon's Catering uses the freshest foods from the finest produce and meat markets in London.

Can I bring my own suppliers?

Our list for catering, floristry, production, decor and scenic are set and we do not permit any supplier outside of this list. For everything else, we do prefer you to use our recommended suppliers as they already know the venue. If you do wish to bring your own suppliers, we request they come for a site visit with one of the team in advance of your wedding day, for approval & to avoid any last minute changes.

Are there any restrictions?

Neither naked flame, fireworks, balloons, smoke bombs/flares nor confetti are allowed on the ORNC grounds, due to the historic nature of our buildings. We are also unable to allow the use of drones within the buildings, however following permission processes we are able to host drone shows on the outdoor grounds. Although fireworks are not permitted within the grounds of the ORNC, you can arrange them on a barge on the River Thames. You will need to contact the Port of London River Authority directly to make the arrangements. Your sales representative will be able to assist with any questions in regards to restrictions on site.

Is there parking available onsite?

Parking on the site is restricted and a limited number of spaces may be available for you and your guests. The event team will be able to confirm availability for your chosen date.

All costs are inclusive of VAT in all of our wedding quotations but will ensure we note where this does not apply.

Do you provide any changing facilities or bedrooms?

The Admirals House is the only space that provides a dressing room which is available to hire in addition to your venue hire and package. There are no bedrooms onsite but please liaise with your wedding coordinator to discuss options for changing rooms.

Can I set up the day prior?

We are unable to allow set up the day prior as our venues are hired on a day basis, and subject to hire your hire times. Your wedding coordinator will be on hand to advise suppliers on set up timings.
